Lexcel conference 2013

Managing performance, risk and growth

Wednesday 23 October 2013
The Law Society, London

The Lexcel conference offers delegates practice advice and business solutions from experts within the legal and commercial sectors. The sessions have been tailored to meet your business and personal development needs, whether you work in private practice or in-house. You will be able to develop your understanding of key management challenges and potential solutions via formal presentations and practical workshops. For Lexcel accredited firms, the conference offers delegates practice advice on how to maximise the value of your accreditation.

The programme includes:

- Regulatory update
- Creating a risk management culture
- Managing risks of outsourcing
- Managing your panel
- Financial crime
- Effective performance management

Who should attend?

- Senior and managing partners from Lexcel accredited and non-accredited firms
- Sole practitioners
- Practice managers
- Corporate counsel from Lexcel accredited and non-accredited departments
- Those responsible for practice management

Lexcel

Lexcel is the Law Society's international practice management standard. It is a scheme for any type of practice to certify that certain standards have been met following independent assessment. Lexcel provides professionals in law firms and in-house legal departments internationally with a flexible, supportive management framework to help develop greater operational efficiencies, manage risk effectively, reduce costs and promote profitability.
